Law School - University of Camerino

Characterising studies

- Socio-legal analysis of contractual relations between businesses to businesses (B2b) and businesses to consumers (B2c) in the agri-food, manufacturing and transport markets
- Implementation of sustainable practices through dissemination activities and research and development programmes with small and medium (SMEs) enterprises
- Participation and acceleration in the advancement of sustainable development goals (SDGs Agenda 2030)
- A critical analysis of the potential risks and benefits associated with the adoption of Internet of Things (IoT) and Artificial Intelligence (AI) technologies

National & International Impact

Supporting SMEs

Direct collaboration with companies such as Fileni S.p.A., Socen S.r.l. and Contram S.p.A. allows the team to exert direct influence on the companies' business practices. The research provides companies with the tools they require to adapt to European sustainability and double transition regulations, thereby improving their performance and increasing their competitiveness.

Proximity SDGs

The dissemination activities of the Team, in collaboration with academic staff and industrial network, facilitate the acceleration towards the sustainable development goals set out in the 2030 Agenda and the Green Deal on climate, environment and society.

Small and medium enterprises – Relationships

The research team has established a collaborative relationship with local SMEs that it is characterised by several strategic and operational aspects.

Collaboration for innovation & R&D

The team engages in collaborative endeavours with select industry partners, such as Fileni S.p.A., Socen S.r.l. and Contram S.p.A., with the objective of developing innovative solutions that address specific company needs. The results of market research are conveyed to industry partners with the objective of accelerating the uptake of innovative practices.

Training and Human Capital Development

In collaboration with SMEs, the team plays a pivotal role in the training of professionals with specialised skills.
